

Novel Nights with Anna Freeman

8pm October 9th
The Lansdown,
Clifton, Bristol
Tickets £3

The Fair Fight is a raucous and intoxicating tale of courage, revenge and female boxing. Bristol, 1799. In a warren of streets nestled in the filth of the bustling city is a brothel called The Convent.

Anna, slam-poet and writing lecturer, will read and discuss her work.

Next Novel Nights: 20th November with Jane Shemilt, author of Daughter, a Sunday Times Bestseller & Richard & Judy Bookclub Choice.

www.wordpoppy.com